

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourn, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

The County Board of Equalization has been in session this week, and adjourned Wednesday evening after transacting considerable business, but too late for us to get their proceedings in this issue of the paper. The proceedings will be published in full in next week's paper.

Enoch Combs, the Hollister liveryman, was a visitor to the county capital the first of the week.

Judge J. R. Combs came down from his home near Greenleaf Sunday evening to be in attendance on the Board of Equalization which met at the court house Monday.

Judge A. J. Craig came in from his home at Walnut Shade Monday morning to attend the sessions of the board of equalization.

The county board of equalization, composed of the three county judges, county assessor and county surveyor, met at the court house on Monday of this week and transacted considerable business. It is a pretty hard job to get the tax assessments of this county straightened out and made anything like equal, but by a great deal of good hard work it can be done.

W. E. Hall, county assessor, of Heracles, came down this week to meet with the board of equalization.

Art Barchman was over from Kirbyville on business the first of the week.

E. G. Warren and John Clark were down from Swan the first of the week and while in town Mr. Warren came in and ordered the Republican sent to his address.

B. Morrison, of Pocahontas, Arkansas, came in Monday evening for a few days visit with relatives and friends here, and to enjoy some of the good fish and fishing. B. is manager of an electric light and ice plant now at the Arkansas town.

L. T. Cornet, the merchant prince of Groom, was in town the first of the week attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

Chas. Moore was a visitor from Hollister the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McQuarter are the parents of a fine girl, born Tuesday night. Mother and child are doing well.

Walter Coble, the Cedar Creek merchant and postmaster, was in the county seat on business the first of the week.

John Felkins, wife and little son and daughter left Sunday morning for a visit of a week or two at Springfield and other points. Lyman is saying here and attending school.

N. D. Wallace, county surveyor, came down from his home at Tancypville the first of the week to sit as a member of the county board of equalization.

Dr. Mitchell came over from Branson Tuesday to see Mrs. Crockett, who has been quite ill for some days past.

Mrs. Nuss of Kansas City, who has been visiting for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keithley, spent a couple of days in town with Mrs. Nellie Walker, and left Tuesday for her home in Kansas City.

Grandma Gladson made a trip up town last Sunday for the first time in about four years. She is getting along in years and is unable to walk, but was brought to church in her wheel chair and afterward took dinner with the Brock family.

M. P. Duncan brought the writer a fine mess of bass the first of the week, the first we have had this season. You know they were fine, and then Monday evening Os Crockett brought us another mess, so we have been having something to eat the past few days.

Allan Bird, an old friend of Dr. Whitsett of the City Drug Store, and manager of the Western Bridge Co., has been in town for several days past making preparations to bid on the two new bridges to be built this year.

L. H. McHaffie of Rogersville came down from his home Sunday and attended the sessions of the Board of Equalization here Monday.

V. C. Todd was over from Branson Monday attending the meeting of the county board of equalization.

Ed Stokely met with a rather serious accident Friday last week. He was sharpening harrow teeth in the shop at home when one flew out of the tongs he was holding it with and struck him in the eye, cutting a gash in the lid and striking the ball of the eye. The piece of metal was red hot at the time and made a very painful wound. He was taken to Springfield that night and placed in a hospital, where he is now getting along as well as could be expected. It is possible that he will lose the sight of his eye altogether, but it is hard to tell yet just how severe the injury was.

Sheriff Boles' family milk cow got hold of some dope of some kind one day last week, presumably what is called "stagger weed" in this section of the country, but which, from the way the animal acts, is probably what is known as "loco weed" in the west. The cow was in pretty bad shape for some time but is now getting all right again. Newt made a pretty good nurse while the trouble was on.

W. H. Church made a short trip to his home at Pinetop last Thursday, returning to Forsyth Saturday.

H. R. Melton, wife and little daughter, came down from Springfield the latter part of last week for a visit of a few days with relatives and friends here. Hig has not been very strong since his long illness last summer and hopes that the rest will help him gain strength.

A. K. Bishop, the photographer, and Lige Hicks, who is taking up that line of business, left Saturday morning for Whitney, North Carolina, where there is a big dam construction job on, and around that kind of jobs the picture business is always good.

B. F. Stout and wife left the latter part of last week for Greene county, where they will be located for a time and then expect to go on to the Pacific coast country. The sale held at their place on the 31st was well attended and most of the stuff sold brought good prices.

Mrs. Dr. Baldwin, who has been quite ill at the family home here for some time, remains in about the same condition. She was able to sit up for a short time one day last week, but the doctor said suffered by it.

TRUSTEE'S SALE. Whereas, Frank W. Van Anten, of Jasper County, Missouri, by his certain deed of trust, dated January 3, 1912, filed for record in the recorder's office of Taney county, Missouri, at 10 o'clock p. m., on the 30th day of January, 1912, and recorded in the records of said office in Book 10 at Page 10, conveyed to Agnes Cummings as trustee, to secure the following real estate, situated in Taney county, Missouri:

The south half of the north-west quarter of section 24, township 23 N., range 10 W., containing 40 acres.

Now therefore, the said Agnes Cummings, having refused to act as trustee under the said deed of trust, and said deed of trust providing that in case of her refusal to act, the then acting sheriff of Taney county, Missouri, shall, at the request of the legal holder of said note, proceed to sell the said real estate, as in and to the said deed of trust, and wherefore, default has been made in the payment of principal and interest of said note and in the payment of taxes on said land.

D. BOLES, Sheriff of Taney County, Missouri. First publication April 19, 1914.

Took a Big Tumble.

Will Tannehill, who was trimming a large tree that grows up over J. A. Weatherman's house last Thursday, fell from the roof of the house and landed in the yard. He had a ladder balanced on a chimney on the house to a limb of the tree, and was ascending the same it slipped, throwing him off of the house top. He was not seriously injured, but it was a close call from being a bad accident. Will was carried into the house and Dr. Baldwin summoned and an examination made which disclosed the fact that there were no broken bones and but one or two skinned places on the young man.

He was able to be up town the next day and says the only bad results he can notice is that he is pretty sore. Will says as soon as the soreness leaves him he will go back and finish the job.

J. F. Goetz, one of the substantial farmers of the Rueter neighborhood, was a visitor to the county seat at Monday of this week.

Albert Parnell came over from Branson Sunday and took a look around and returned to that place on Monday afternoon.

A. L. Weatherman and Will Craig were among the Walnut Shade residents who came in Monday when the board of equalization was in session here.
